Making a huge decision, like buying a second home by myself for the first time, was daunting! The Kolb Team had my back. They were helpful, but I didn't feel pressured. They answered all my questions and responded to my concerns thoroughly and expediently. Together, we found a home I am happy to call mine, one I know I will enjoy for a long time. Even after the sale, the Kolb Team continues to remain in touch, providing information and assistance in helping me with all the work of "settling in."
